Buether Joe & Carpenter Announces Addition of Senior Counsel Ken Kula

DALLAS (January 19, 2016) – Buether Joe & Carpenter, LLC – an intellectual property and commercial litigation boutique law firm – is pleased to announce that Ken Kula has joined the firm as Senior Counsel. Mr. Kula will work with the other members of the firm primarily representing clients involved in patent, trademark, copyright and commercial litigation.

Mr. Kula previously worked at McKool Smith, P.C. (Dallas), Jones Day (Dallas), Shook Hardy & Bacon (Kansas City), and McDole Williams (Dallas) litigating intellectual property and commercial disputes.

Mr. Kula holds a Bachelor of Science in computer science from St. John Fisher College and attended law school at Washburn University School of Law.

“Ken brings years of hands-on litigation experience in patent and other IP cases. He is a pit bull when it comes to prosecuting or defending cases for clients. We are excited to have him join the firm.” says founding partner Chris Joe.

Buether Joe & Carpenter, LLC is an intellectual property and commercial litigation boutique law firm focusing on patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, and unfair competition lawsuits, as well as antitrust, contract and other business disputes for both plaintiffs and defendants.
