Eric Buether Selected as a Texas Super Lawyer for 2010

DALLAS (September 27, 2010) – Eric Buether of Buether Joe & Carpenter, LLC – an intellectual property and commercial litigation boutique law firm – has been recognized in the prestigious Texas Super Lawyers listing of the state’s top attorneys for 2010. Mr. Buether has been selected as a Texas Super Lawyer every year since 2004.

The Texas Super Lawyers list appears in the October 2010 issue of Texas Monthly magazine and Texas Super Lawyers magazine, which is published by Law & Politics Media Inc. in conjunction with Texas Monthly.

“The attorneys at BJC are dedicated to winning cases for our clients, not honors for ourselves, but we are gratified to be recognized for the quality of the legal services we provide,” says Mr. Buether, co-founder of the firm. “This honor confirms the firm’s commitment to meeting the highest professional standards for the practice of law.”

Chris Joe of Buether Joe & Carpenter was selected as a Rising Star by Texas Monthly in 2006, 2007, and 2008.

Super Lawyers selections were based on nominations from more than 70,000 attorneys across Texas. Nominees then were screened by a blue-ribbon panel before final selections were made. Fewer than five percent of all Texas lawyers earn the Super Lawyers distinction.

Buether Joe & Carpenter, LLC is an intellectual property and commercial litigation boutique law firm focusing on patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, and unfair competition lawsuits, as well as antitrust, contract and other business disputes for both plaintiffs and defendants. BJC offers clients the expertise of attorneys with decades of experience in handling complex litigation in an effective and efficient manner.
